Bill No. 2 Uganda Communications (Amendment) Bill 2016

THE UGANDA COMMUNICATIONS (AMENDMENT) BILL, 2016

MEMORANDUM

As part of operationalising the Uganda Com.
the Minister of Information and Communications Technology is required to make regulations in order to give effect to the provisions of the Act.

In enacting the Uganda Communications Act, 2013, two conflicting provisions were incorporated into the Act by Parliament as follows—

- (a) Section 93 (1) which provides that "The Minister may, after consultation with the Commission and with the approval of Parliament, by statutory instrument, make regulations for the better carrying into effect the provisions of this Act"; and
- (b) Section 93 (3) which provides that "Regulations made shall be laid before Parliament."

The object of this Bill is therefore to amend the Uganda communications Act, 2013 to remove the requirement for Parliamentary approval of regulations made by the Minister under section 93 (1).

ENG. JOHN NASASIRA,
Minister of Information and Communications Technology.

THE REPUBLIC OF UGANDA

CERTIFICATE OF
FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS

(Made under Section 76 of the Public Finance Management Act, 2015)

THIS IS TO CERTIFY that a Bill entitled UGANDA COMMUNICATIONS (AMENDMENT) BILL, 2015 has been examined and I wish to report as follows:

a) That the Bill has the following objectives:

- i. To submit to Cabinet the provisions of the proposed amendment to the Uganda Communications Act, 2013,
- ii. To seek Cabinet approval of the Uganda Communications (Amendment) Bill, 2015 and
- iii. To seek Cabinet authority to have the Bill gazetted and tabled in Parliament for debate and enactment.

b) That it is expected to have the following impact on the economy:

The Amendment Bill will expedite drafting and implementing of new regulations in the communications sector which in turn will lead to improved performance of the ICT sector.

c) Funding and budgetary implications

The implementation of the Uganda Communications (Amendment) Bill, 2015 will not attract additional financial implications.

28

The funds for its implementation are to be secured from the operations of the Uganda Communications Commission, namely from license fees and the levy from the gross annual revenue of the communications operators as stipulated in the Uganda Communications Act, 2013.

d) Expected benefits (savings and revenues)

The new regulations will improve quality of services, revenue collection from the sector and coordination of investment in the ICT sector.

Submitted under my hand this 19th day of October 2015.

Maria Kasajja

MINISTER OF FINANCE, PLANNING AND ECONOMIC
